Humor Me...Saying the Right Thing

Funny aspects of any relationship can keep life from getting boring. Humor is to a healthy relationship like water is to a plant...it nourishes and strengthens the relationship. The following story is about Joe who wants to pop the big question to the woman he loves.

When Joe met Betty, he immediately fell in love with her. She also seemed to enjoy his company greatly. After hanging around each other for quite some time, Joe decides to pop the big question to Betty. Mustering up all of his courage one day, Joe walks up to Betty.

Joe: Ummm...Betty?

Betty: Yeah Joe

Joe: You know it is really great to be a bachelor but every man needs someone in his life. Someone who will make him feel like a hero, whom he can claim as his own, who will love him unconditionally, who will be caring and remains true to him all the time.

Joe was happy as understanding draws to Betty eyes. He started to feel elated. Then Betty nodding her head in agreement said 'I understand what you mean and I totally agree with you, Joe. Let's go and see where we can find a puppy for you.'

Keep laughing till it hurts and enjoy your day!

"You must always remember ... You are Braver than you believe, Stronger than you seem, and Smarter than you think."
~ Christopher Robin

WOW...What A Testimony!

Stephen Miller: "Great service. Technicians/mechanics did a great explaining the problems and potential solution/options moving forward."

Sherron Millen: "We appreciate the good service we have always received. Great work! Thanks so much."

Jim Main: "The brake inspection and pad installation went smoothly and quickly. Marco did his usual thorough job and explained everything clearly. Congratulations on a successful food bank drive!"

Ian Finn: "Quick service, reasonable prices, office staff helpful and brought me coffee, Marco explained things well and wasn't pushy about other repairs that were needed or should be looked at in the future."

Ed S: "Exceptionally quick and complete service at reasonable rate."

Bob Russell: "Very prompt and courteous service."

Michael Mann: "Fast, efficient, accommodating, easy to work with, highly recommend."

Tim Mulrooney: "Awesome!!! No other way to describe the service, work and dedication to customers needs and concerns. Found issue with rig, gave multiple options and verified actual need to get me back on the road. Found other issues and went through options and prioritized need in regards to how soon and what needs to be done along with giving me price options. Will always recommend them to everyone and would not take my vehicle anywhere else. Might find cheaper somewhere else but would HIGHLY discourage this to anyone. Cheaper is not always the best. You get what you pay for and then some with DuFresnes!! Awesome job folks!!"

Hey, Good Lookin’

Love your car? Answer the following questions to see if your passion still burns true.

1. Park your car and walk away. Do you want to look back? How many times? Do you find yourself walking backward so you can keep looking at it?
2. Do you find yourself parking your car in spots where you can see it from the window of wherever you’re going?
3. If someone takes a photo of an attractive person with your car in the background, do you zoom in to look at your car instead of the model?
4. If the song “I Will Always Love You” (Whitney or Dolly version) comes on the radio, is your first thought, I wish my car could hear this?
5. Have you ever searched for your house on Google Earth for the sole purpose of seeing your car from above?
6. If I were to look up your recent search history, would the majority of your entries be activities to do with your car or parts to upgrade your car?
7. Are the only T-shirts you’ve ever purchased (as opposed to getting free in car-show swag bags) shirts with the brand or image of your car?
8. Have you ever asked someone else to drive your car just so you could experience all its available seating positions?
9. Have you ever embraced or kissed your car because it did such a good job and you’re so proud of it?
10. Does your car have a name, and if so, do people who hear you talk about it think you are talking about a child/spouse?

Yes, we know these questions are silly. But’s that’s the fun of it.

If you answered “yes” to even one of these questions... Congratulations! You and your car are perfect for each other. We wish you much happiness together. :)

Ready For Some Football?

With Super Bowl 52 kicking off February 4th, we thought we'd hand off some football tidbits to gear you up for that Super Bowl party!

Did you know November 12, 1892, was a day that would forever be etched in sports history?

Although no one involved on that day could possibly have recognized the importance of the occasion, it was the day that the Allegheny Athletic Association football team defeated the Pittsburgh Athletic Club.

The game in itself was not a momentous event. But one of the circumstances of the game did make it a "never-to-be-forgotten" moment in sports history ... one of the AAA players, William (Pudge) Heffelfinger, was openly paid $500 to play the game.

Thus pro football made its debut more than 100 years ago in comparatively obscure surroundings that could not possibly have provided the slightest clue to the world-wide popularity the sport would be destined to enjoy, particularly in the waning decades of pro football's first century.
